

Ira Harbison Annual Title 1 Parent Meeting

Agenda

- What is Title I?
- Parent Rights under Title I
- Parent Involvement
- Ira Harbison Vision
- Single Plan for Student Achievement
- Title I Funds
- Title I Parent Involvement Policy
- Home/School Compact

What is Title I

Title I is a K-12 program that provides additional academic support and learning opportunities for students at schools with high percentages of socioeconomically disadvantaged children. The program is intended to help ensure that all students meet state academic standards.

Goals of Title I

- Increase academic achievement
- Provide direct instructional support to students.
- Provide professional development for teachers.
- Promote parent education and involvement.

Parent Rights

- Review the school's achievement data.
- Review the parent involvement plan in the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA).
- Review and modify the Title I Parent Involvement Policy and Home/School Compact.

Parent Involvement

The School Site Council (SSC) provides parents with an opportunity to be involved in the academic program of the school. The SSC develops, monitors, and evaluates the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA) to implement programs and services that support students.

Parent Involvement at Our School

At Ira Harbison we have a very strong PTA. This is a great way to get involved.

School Achievement Data

- Ira Harbison will be analyzing Smarter Balance and The English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC).
- Ira Harbison teachers and staff will utilize the data to align curriculum to California common core state academic standards.
- Schools adjust instructional practices based on the findings of the assessment data.

Single Plan for Students Achievement

- Parents are informed about the school's curriculum in English/ Language Arts and Math, as well as other core subjects.
- Parents also receive information about the assessments used to measure student progress in these academic areas.

Single Plan for Student Achievement

Ira Harbison Goals are focused around

- English Language Arts
  - Math
  - English Learners
  - Special Education

Ira Harbison Technology Vision Statement

- At Ira Harbison the use of technology in instruction changes the structure of the classroom. No longer will the teacher rely solely on the traditional lecture/seat work method of instruction.
- Ira Harbison has technology-rich, learner-centered classrooms, where the teacher serves as a facilitator of instruction, mentor, and coach.
- At Ira Harbison technology helps to provide a record of the student's academic history and serves as a way to manage learning progress and activities.
- At Ira Harbison teachers have the data and information needed to individualize instruction and assessment as well as make other important instructional management decisions.
- Through the use of technology at Ira Harbison, teachers and students access a wealth of materials, services, and networks throughout the state, nation, and world.

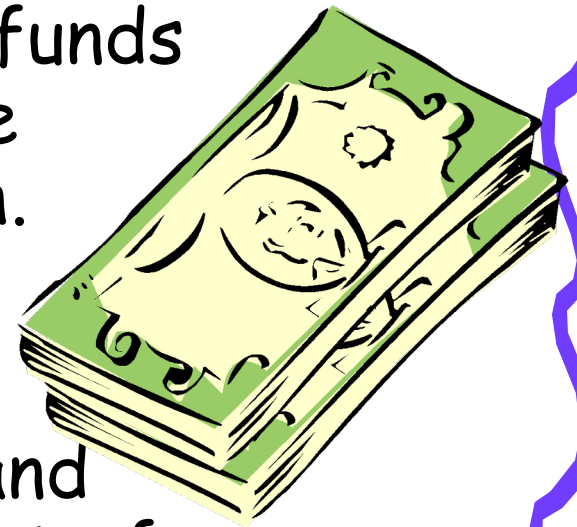

At Ira Harbison technology does not replace the teacher, but rather supports and enhances the educational process.

Title I Funds

[Federal Funds]

- Allocated on basis of number of students eligible for free/reduced lunch. Schools receive Title I funds if 40% or more of students are eligible for free/reduced lunch.
- Schools in NSD are ranked according to this percentage, and schools receive a certain amount of money per student.

Title I Funds (cont.)

- One percent of a school's total Title I budget is for parent involvement activities.
- Schools in Program Improvement must set aside a minimum of 10% for professional development.
- Funds must supplement, not supplant district funds.

The Title I Parent Involvement Policy

Every Title I school, in collaboration with parents, must prepare a site level parent involvement policy which describes how the school will involve the parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely way in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I program at the school.

Home/School Compact

The Home/School Compact describes the responsibilities of the school, the parent, and the student for improved student achievement.

Home/School Compact

(cont.)

- Developed in collaboration among parents, teachers and students.
- Updated periodically.
- Distributed with site Title I Parent Involvement Policy.

Welcome Video

